THE ARTISAN

The laborer works with his hands.

The craftsman works with his hands and mind,
but the ARTISAN works with his hands, mind and heart.

Dedication

The class of 2012 dedicates this yearbook to the Greater New Bedford Voc-Tech Community.

Without the unwavering support from community leaders, organizations, and individuals the success of the class of 2012 would not be possible. Although our student body hails from New Bedford, Fairhaven, and Dartmouth the sense of community within the walls of Greater New Bedford Voc-Tech is unparalleled. Our ability to come together in both good and bad times is the testament of our strength. As a class we pledge to be the future leaders and repay the support the community has given us.

Class President*

Remember...

Superintendent-Director

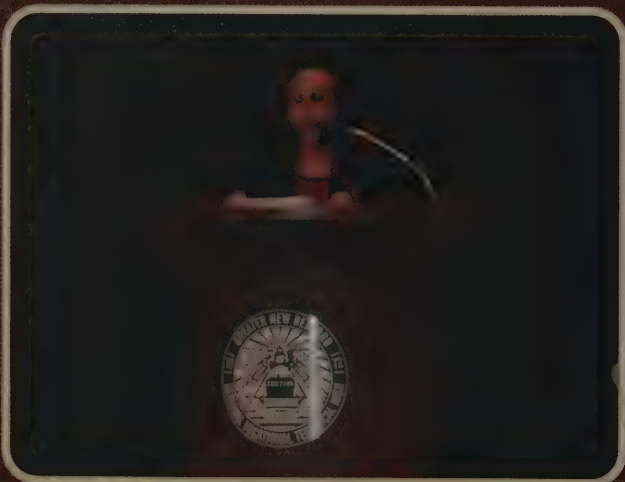

Linda Enos

After four years of academic and trade classes, you are leaving Greater New Bedford Regional Vocational Technical High School! With leaving comes mixed emotions; relief, sadness, happiness, anticipation, and hope for the future. Think of it, not as an end, but a beginning.

As you graduate, I would like you to reflect on your years at Greater New Bedford Regional Vocational Technical High School. Take with you things you have learned to help you on your journey. Remember the friends that you have made and the friends that you have lost along the way and how they have all contributed to who you have become. Remember your teachers who have done their best to give you not only what you need in your chosen trade to survive in the world, but have taught you about life too.

Your future holds endless possibilities because of the education that you chose at Greater New Bedford Regional Vocational Technical High School. I hope the memory of your time here will stay with you and help you always.

Good luck in your new beginning!

Career and Technical Education Principal

Congratulations to each and every graduate of the class of 2012. As you move towards the responsibilities and challenges of adulthood, I am confident that the education and life skills you have acquired at Greater New Bedford Regional Vocational Technical High School have prepared you for the years ahead.

I am proud of what you have accomplished at this school and within the community. I extend my sincere congratulations to your parents, family, and to each of you for your outstanding accomplishments. Wherever life may take you, remember the solid foundation you received at Greater New Bedford Regional Voc-Tech. Good Luck!

Michael Gagliardi

Academic Programs Principal

Congratulations on your graduation. I am sure your high school career here at Greater New Bedford Regional Vocational Technical High School has produced many memories. Hopefully these memories will give you a smile as you travel down the road of life. The experiences you have had in school have helped make you the person you are.

The effort and hard work you have invested in your studies resulted in your diploma. The skills you have developed in both the Vocational and Academic areas will last you a lifetime. Remember GNB Voc-Tech is the school it is because of you and the many graduates that came before you. Always keep looking to the future and the betterment of yourself. I extend my congratulations to your family as this is a very special time in their lives also. Good Luck!
